Wine & Art!

Explore your creative side or just try something new with friends, family and like-minded people in these social art-making workshops! Spend a few hours in the studio while you enjoy a glass of wine, light hors d'oeuvres and great conversation. Classes fill up quickly, so register early!

Registration required. Contact Heather at 563.326.7804 x2045 or haaronson@figgeartmuseum.org. $20 per student. All supplies provided.

INTRODUCTION TO BOOKMAKING

Instructor: Andrew Huot • 6–8 pm Thursday, September 4
Work with paper, thread and glue to create several unique books and pamphlets. From cover to cover, you'll enjoy the story of bookmaking.

Special W&A:

CANCER SURVIVORS & CARETAKERS ART NIGHT

Instructor: Emily Christenson • 6–8 pm Thursday, October 2
This special evening of painting is a collaborative effort between Living Proof and the Figge Art Museum to celebrate the strength and resilience of cancer survivors and their caretakers.

DAY OF THE DEAD

Instructor: Gloria Burlingame • 6–8 pm Thursday, October 9
La Calavera Catrina is a defining image of the Day of the Dead celebration. Learn the history of the Catrina and Day of the Dead traditions as you fashion your own 3D mixed-media Catrina figure.

JAPANESE BRUSH CALLIGRAPHY ART: HOLIDAY WREATH ORNAMENT AND CARDS

Instructor: Anna Ito • 6–8 pm Thursday, November 6
Artist Anna Ito, executive director at Japan Brush Writing Association, USA Division, will teach the Japanese Hiragana/Katakana alphabets, basic Japanese calligraphic brush strokes and Japanese Kanji characters. Create a colorful holiday wreath and one-of-a-kind holiday cards in this relaxed, fun class.
