

March 17-25

BETTENDORF

Community School District

We invite you to join us in recognition of the Young Artists from Bettendorf.

Recognition Ceremony • Sunday, March 18

12:30 pm Hoover, Armstrong, Thomas Jefferson • 1 pm Grant Wood, Mark Twain, Paul Norton

Admission to the museum is free.

Each participating student will receive recognition from their school, district and community, as well as a certificate in honor of their artistic achievement.

We invite families to explore the museum after the ceremony.

Young Artists at the Figge Day • Saturday, May 12

All Young Artists and their families are invited to join us in celebrating creativity at a special FREE day at the museum. Explore working artists at the Beaux Arts Fair on the Figge plaza, then head into the museum for FREE admission, with special student activities from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Mark your calendars now! A reminder will be sent to the schools.

TIPS for Your Visit

PARKING Parking in the Figge lot and on the street is FREE! There are also 2 parking ramps available adjacent to the museum at Harrison and 2nd Street or River Drive and Main Street.

TIMING The museum opens at Noon on Sundays. Allow yourself enough time to arrive at the museum and make it to the 2nd floor gallery and auditorium in time for your school's ceremony. Check the ceremony time with your art teacher, they are held in groups by school. Each ceremony lasts about 25-30 minutes.

PHOTOGRAPHY This is a GREAT time for a photo opp! Non-flash photography is welcome in the museum except where posted (near certain artworks). Don't forget to tag the Figge Art Museum on Facebook!

FOOD & BEVERAGE These are not allowed in the galleries of the museum (except for infant needs). Please leave coffee, water bottles, etc. in the car, or feel welcome to use one of the museum's free lockers to check your items.
