DISCOUNTS for museum members.

REFUNDS and TRANSFERS will be granted 10 or more business days before a class is scheduled to start. Refunds and transfers may be given after that time if requested, per the museum's discretion. Please contact us.*

CANCELLATION & SCHEDULE CHANGES The museum reserves the right to cancel classes when minimum enrollment is not met one week prior to its starting date. In addition, changes may be made to the class and/or instructor listed. In event of inclement weather, call us* or watch the local television for updates. Alternate times for classes cancelled due to weather are at the discretion of the museum. All classes may not have the opportunity to reschedule.

ART SUPPLIES may or may not be included. Check class description for details.

ARRIVAL AND PARKING Students should arrive at the West Second Street entrance. Check in at the Museum Store to be directed to the studios. Students attending classes after museum hours should enter through the security door labeled 225. Parents are requested to accompany children to and from the museum. In case of emergency or delay, please call security at 563.345.6634. Free parking is available on the Figge Plaza or street. Paid city parking ramps are indicated by the P on the diagram to the left.

PHOTOS of students participating in studio programming, and their artwork, are taken periodically by a museum representative. If there are any concerns about being photographed or having the images reproduced by the museum for promotional purposes, please let us know when you register.
