

Camila is a practicing artist working primarily with fabric and clay. She was born in Quito, Ecuador and has spent the majority of her life here in the states. Camila is a recent graduate of Illinois State University and is currently in the beginning stages of developing her career as an artist. In 2019, she exhibited her most recent piece Don't forget in the ARC gallery in Chicago. She is currently working on a new series called Example Citizen consisting of paper and hair. If you'd like more information, feel free to reach her at ccamilamariana@gmail.com.