

Carolyn Krueger Bio

Rock Island artist, Carolyn Krueger, works primarily with clay. Her colorful, but functional, work is hand-built and wheel-thrown. You can find her work at her gallery, The ARTery in Rock Island. She also exhibits with MidCoast Fine Arts, Bucktown Center for the Arts, Crafted QC, ArtsWorks in LeClaire, and Escape Goat Soaps in The Village of East Davenport.

Carolyn has served on the Arts Advisory Committee for the City of Rock Island since 2007 and is an advocate for all things art in our community. She has also been teaching art and pottery for more than fifteen years and offers private lessons and classes to students of all ages.

Follow her on Facebook at Pottery with Miss Carolyn: <https://www.facebook.com/cjkclay>