The Figge Art Museum is a monumental 114,000-square-foot glass facility designed by British architect Sir David Chipperfield. It is the perfect backdrop for your special event. Discover a place where the surroundings can inspire you, from breathtaking river views and an elegant reception hall, to a cutting-edge auditorium space and private board room suite. Complete the experience by viewing our exhibitions and permanent collections, which offer a distinctive look at regional, national and international art from the 15th century to the present.
